LAST EDITION.

From the Metropolis.

Knights of St. Crispin--Higher than a Kite--Fast Time--First Hops, Etc., Etc.

New York, August 9.--The Central Council of St. Crispin is now in session in this city. They assert the determination of the Order to discuss all questions freely with employers to hold employee's agreement to the Order, and in case of violation to place the shops under a strike. They say that they do not mean to be aggressive, but will resist every encroachment whether from outside foes or inside traitors.

New York, August 9.--The strike of the Crispin continues. The men seem to have an impression on their minds that the bosses are determined to break up their society, and rather than see this effected they will hold out through the winter.

The committee who have had charge of the examination into the business affairs of J. B. Ford & Co., publishers, pending present financial difficulties, reported to all creditors recommending the acceptance of 35 cents upon the dollar, monthly payments to be made, and to commence December 15, next.

The steamship Germania, which arrived yesterday morning, made the voyage in less than eight days. This beats all competitors.

The first sale of hops arrived from Waterville, Me., yesterday. It was sold at sixty cents to A. Patterson, brewer. The new crop is reported as very promising, while the English crop is said to be smaller than usual.

The ship Hudson, of the Cromwell line, which arrived last night from New Orleans, made the passage in five days, six hours and fifteen minutes, the quickest ever made between the two ports.

President Edison, of the Produce Exchange, has been informed that the Pennsylvania R. Co. will send in their formal acceptance or rejection of the proposed new rules for grading grain to-day. If favorable a meeting will be held to arrange details, and the rules will go into effect as soon thereafter as practicable.

HALLECK CONFESSES THE THEFT OF THE $47,000.

New York, August 9.--Halleck, the Treasury clerk under arrest for the theft of $47,000 from the Treasury, has confessed that he stole the package at the instigation of Ottman, to whom the money was committed.

Halleck, thus far, says he only received $600 of the stolen money. Ottman has arranged to transfer his drinking saloon here to Halleck for $8,000, and had purchased a similar saloon in Brooklyn for $2,000.

He is possessed of considerable property, and is a large stockholder in the Arlington Bank, where he has a package of money, the amount of which is not known. It is supposed to contain a greater portion of the stolen funds.

Yesterday he wrote an order for the delivery of the package, and fearing detection threw the order into a water-closet, where the detectives found it. The bank President has been ordered not to deliver up the package. "It is believed that the amount stolen is recoverable."

PRIZE FIGHT.

A prize fight for $200 a side took place this morning near Whitestone, Long Island, between Peter Gallagher and Jim Madden, two New York pugilists of some reputation.

In the eighteenth round Gallagher's friends, satisfied of his inability to win, raised a cry of police, and the large crowd present scattered. The referee ordered the fight to proceed, but Gallagher refused and Madden was declared winner.

THE COMING THEATRICAL SEASON.

The coming musical and dramatic season promises to be unusually brilliant in this city. The principal attractions will be Waibel in German opera at the Academy of Music, Kellogg at Booth's Theater, and Julie in French opera bouffe.

Arrangements of different theatrical managers have been completed and with Rosak and Barry Sullivan in drama, Tierjox Godard and Hans Von Bulow in music, the cities will be well supplied with theatricals.

SUSPENDED.

Albert L. Dodge, wine and cigar merchant, has made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. Liabilities $70,000; assets $30,000.

Dwight Johnston, President of the Fireman's First Insurance Co., has been appointed assignee in the case of Archibald Paxter & Co., suspended grain merchants.

From Chicago.

That Weekly Blow--The Fast Mail Service--Improved Crop Prospects--Summer Weather and Resorts, etc., etc.

CHICAGO, August 9.--During the past week permits were issued in this city for the erection of 123 buildings, most of them residences--a fact which exhibits unusual activity for this time of the year. The cheapness of building materials and pressing demand for good dwelling houses are inducements to build at this time, and it is generally remarked that with the exception of the years immediately following the great fire, there never were so many business and residence blocks in course of erection in the city as at present. Very few business blocks are vacant, and although there are many complaints of hard times, capitalists are showing their utmost confidence in the Chicago real estate and building operations.

Geo. S. Bangs, Superintendent of the Railway Mail Service, visited over Sunday at Waukegan, Wisconsin. Saturday he received a telegram from Commodore Vanderbilt in regard to the proposed fast mail train, in which that gentleman stated that his portion of the route would be ready for the service September 15th. The completion of the fast service will be placed upon the road on the morning of September 16th. The first departure will be made from the Forty-second-street depot, New York, for Chicago, while the first fast train going East will leave Chicago at 9:45 o'clock in the evening of the same day.

These trains will run regularly from this time forward, there being no such thing as an experimental train on the programme. From New York the train is expected to reach Toledo at 11 o'clock in the evening, but it has a margin of twenty minutes after that time. From Toledo to Chicago there will be no extraordinary haste necessary to reach Chicago by 6 o'clock the next morning, and it is certain that the whole run will be made in less than twenty-six hours, though Mr. Bangs does not wish to be placed on record as promising any quicker time. The distribution of this mail for Chicago is not lost.

Officials of the Northwest railroad report that fine weather has been experienced along their lines in Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota during the past two days, and President Good, of that road, expresses the belief that the crops of all kinds of grain will prove abundant.

Similar reports come from many of the localities recently visited by the floods, and it is the general impression that warm but not sultry weather will enable farmers to save much of the grain which has been almost entirely lost.

Yesterday was the first really warm day experienced in this city for a month, and it is still too cool to approximate to the ordinary August weather. Pleasure seekers are beginning to leave in large numbers. The steamers of the Goodrich line, which make the bulk of the lake excursion business, go out full on every trip, and the pleasure resorts of the North, which have been too cold to allure anyone, are now rapidly filling up.

From Washington.

That $47,000 Robbery.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.--It is reported this morning that the authorities have recovered $38,000 of the stolen treasury package. A note was intercepted which Ottman was trying to get to an accomplice, and the whereabouts of the hidden spoils thus discovered. Halleck has been closely watched ever since the robbery, and it is not believed that any one else in the Treasurer's office is connected with the robbery.

WASHINGTON, August 9.--Detectives are now confident that they have the men who robbed the Treasurer's office of the $47,000 package some months ago. Theodore W. Brown was captured while putting up $500 bills at the Saratoga races, and this was the first clue to the robbery. Benjamin B. Halleck, a clerk in the Treasury cash room, and Wm. H. Ottman, a law keeper, are the other parties under arrest.

Halleck's wife visited him at the Central Guard-house this morning and was very much afflicted. She refused to believe him guilty.

Ottman, who was held in $100,000 bail, has been quite popular in Washington, and had succeeded in securing quite a portion of the amount required for bail, but the evidence against him, which has since been made public, has led to the withdrawal of those on his bond, and it is probable that they will be compelled to remain in jail until their trial takes place.

When the action of the local police became known through the newspapers, the case Treasurer New directed Mayor Washburn, of the Treasury Secret Service, to confer with Mayor Richards and give him any information in his possession in relation to the matter, but there was very little of value to be given as the case was pretty well worked up. Of course the Treasury officers are much chagrined, and the District police correspondingly gratified. The fact that their assistance had never been invited, and that whatever the local officers did was at their own personal expense, does not lessen the feelings on either side.

Latest from Abroad.

ANOTHER REVOLUTION.

LONDON, August 9.--Dispatches from Central Asia report that a revolution has broken out in Korhand. The Khan has fled, and his forces have joined the insurgents.

RECORDING--OUR SHOOTISTS.

PARIS, August 9.--The waters of the Rhone are falling, and danger of inundation is averted.

The American marksmen and their friends left Paris last night for London.

ENGLISH ITEMS AND SUCH.

LONDON, August 9.--The O'Connell Centenary was celebrated in this city by a banquet Saturday night at Cannon-street Hotel. The majority of the gentlemen present were Home-rulers. Cardinal Manning ordered a Te Deum to be sung Sunday evening in all the churches of the Archdiocese, and the blessings resulting from O'Connell's labors.

An additional $100,000 in specie has been recovered from the wreck of the Schiller.

The United States steamer Tennessee has arrived at Palermo.

The death is announced of Wm. Bayley Bernard, the dramatist, born in 1815, in Boston.

Parker Recaptured.

CHARLESTON, August 9.--Parker, the Ex-Treasurer of State, was recaptured in Camden last night.

The Gale.

DETROIT, August 9.--The gale of Friday was very severe on the lakes. The bark Austin and schooner Aultmore are ashore, full of water, near Manitow, Lake Michigan. The tug Vulcan lost a raft of two million feet of pine lumber.

Railroad War.

ST. LOUIS, August 9.--The railroad war continues. The Hannibal and St. Joseph railroad has entered the arena by reducing the fare to Chicago to $5, and round-trip tickets to $10, which has been met by the St. Louis, Kansas City and Keokuk and Chicago and Alton roads.

Log Driving.

MINNEAPOLIS, August 9.--The lumber men are having considerable trouble in getting logs into the Minneapolis booms this year, owing to slack water. At a meeting of log owners they discovered that there are twenty million feet of logs now in the river between Clearwater and this city, while 15,000,000 are high and dry at other points along the drive. Boommaster Dorr has dispatched extra crews of drivers, and the logs will be brought down as far as possible.

Prices in London--Coffee, Cane.

LONDON, August 9.--As the weather for the past week has been fine and more encouraging to operators for lower prices, and harvesting will begin next week, but with all this, accounts are not so much unfavorable, and favor holders of stocks of wheat. Prices of all grades are well sustained, and quotations are steady on the basis of fifty-one shillings per quarter for No. 2 Milwaukee on the spot. Cotton strong and active, and prices show an upward tendency.

Alexander Collie, whose trial was to come off to-day, has absconded. The case is adjourned one month.

Railroad War.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., August 9.--The war of rates between the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern road and other competing lines East, has at last reached a most interesting point in the traveling public.

Saturday the first named road cut the rates to two dollars to St. Louis, and to-day the Hannibal & St. Joseph road, at one jump, gives a rate of five dollars to Chicago, and ten dollars for the round trip.

The Missouri & Pacific railroad is not yet in the fight, but in all probability will be within twenty-four hours. Officers of all the roads have been in the city during the last forty-eight hours and say they will fight it out to the bitter end. No cut has yet been made on freight.

Hard on Governor Ames.

VICKSBURG, Miss., Aug. 9.--A special from Hernando says that G. Wiley Wells, District Attorney and Republican candidate for Congress in the Second District, in a speech at Hernando denounced Gov. Ames in unmeasured terms. He said that previous to the Vicksburg riot of last December, when so much blood was shed, Gov. Ames, Sheriff Crosby and Attorney General Harris had a consultation, when Ames advised Crosby to arm the negroes and march on Vicksburg.

Attorney General Harris protested warmly, saying it would cause bloodshed, when Ames replied that the killing of twenty, or thirty negroes would help the Republican party in the State, and Crosby proceeded to carry out Ames' instructions.

Attorney General Harris, Republican, was present when Wells made his speech, and confirmed the statement. Wells was one of Ames' chief supporters for Governor, and a leading Republican in the State. The charge had been made against Ames of inciting the riot, but there was no proof heretofore.

The Swatara Voyages.

The United States naval steamship Swatara, which reached this port on its return from the expedition for the observation of the transit of Venus on Monday, was anchored off the Battery yesterday morning. No orders as to the further disposition of the Swatara have as yet been received from Washington.

It is probable, however, that the vessel will be ordered to the Brooklyn Navy-yard, to undergo some necessary repairs after the long voyage. Among the curious animals brought home by the officers are a sarcophagus urseus, or "Tasmanian devil." This hideous creature is said to be the only living specimen in this country, and it will probably be sent to Central Park for exhibition. In appearance it has some resemblance to the American raccoon. It is carnivorous, and in its wild state principally lives upon birds, rats and other smaller animals. Although partially tamed, it is deemed necessary to keep the creature confined on deck. There is also on board a wombat, or Tasmanian dog, several kangaroos, with a wallaby and two beautiful Gordon setters were also noticed playing upon the deck of the Swatara, while a number of love birds, parrots and a Sultana bird were caged in different portions of the vessel. A fine collection of Australian ferns has been made by several officers connected with the expedition.

The Swatara brought back the instruments used in observing the transit, all of which will be removed to the Brooklyn Navy-yard, and then turned over to the steamship Tallapoosa, which will take them to Washington. In addition, there have already appeared in the Tribune concerning the voyage of the Swatara, the following facts were obtained from the officers yesterday.

The Swatara is the only naval vessel that for many years past has gone entirely around the world in one cruise. The space in the ship was well taken up, there being on board all the persons bound for the five stations of observation, together with all the instruments, transit, equatorial, and photograph houses and other equipments. The Swatara was a new vessel and had never left her dock before she started on this expedition, but her sailing qualities, her weathering capacity, and her speed, on several occasions, are highly commended by the officers.--N. Y. Cor.

Continuous rains recently in different parts of France, especially in the basin of the Rhone, threaten a flood at Lyons.
